

REGISTER NOW!

MITCHELL
KAPOR
FOUNDATION
PRESENTS

COLLEGE BOUND BROTHERHOOD

WHAT WORKS

WHAT WORKS! 2011
Back to School, Back to Work:
College Readiness for Young Black Men
A CONVENING FOR EDUCATORS AND PRACTITIONERS

Tuesday, October 18, 2011 • 9:00 AM–4:00 PM

David Brower Center
2150 Allston Way
Berkeley, CA 94704

What Works is the Mitchell Kapor Foundation's annual convening that highlights successful approaches used by our grant partner organizations and provides a forum for practitioners to network and strategize.

This year's convening focuses on the College Bound Brotherhood. What Works participants will learn from selected youth-serving practitioners and local educators about effective college-readiness strategies for young black men.

There is a registration fee of $20. Paid admission will also be available at the door ($20 - cash only).

Register at
<http://whatworks2011.eventbrite.com/>

The Mitchell Kapor Foundation supports organizations that provoke social change in communities of color en route to equality.

We provide financial resources and assist with efforts to galvanize a compelling force for social change.